

THE INTERBANK MULTICULTURAL NETWORK PROUDLY PRESENTS...

“Leading by example: The secrets of Success”

To be chaired by Jacqui Harper MBE, one of Britain's most experienced and respected broadcasters. She has anchored many news and current affairs programmes for BBC TV, Sky News and GMTV and is the founder of Crystal Business Training which specialises in public speaking courses. She is the author of Voices of Experience, the guide to making great business presentations.

We are delighted to invite a guest panel of successful professionals who will share their experiences on achieving success in their respective fields

Punita Gajree

Punita is a Partner within Accenture's Financial Services Group. She joined the firm in 1990 and was promoted to Partner in 2000. In 2001 she was shortlisted for the Asian Women Achievement Award. She is a key member of the People Advocate Committee, where she Chairs Accenture's People Programme Agenda, which includes Inclusion and Diversity, Corporate Citizenship and Flexible Working initiatives.

Courtenay Griffiths

Courtenay is one of the UK's most prominent criminal barristers. He is a QC, a part-time judge and the joint Head of Chambers of one of the best known and respected Chambers in the UK, Garden Court Chambers. He was counsel in some of the most famous trials including the Damilola Taylor murder trial, R v Silcott & others (Blakelock murder trial), The Brighton Bombing, The Harrods Bombing. He has written and lectured extensively on all aspects of the criminal justice system and appeared on TV and radio.

Alpesh Patel

Alpesh is the founding Managing Director of Agile Partners Asset Management one of the best performing hedge funds in the world. He started a weekly column in the Financial Times in 1999 and has had over 200 columns on investing published in the paper as well as being a regular markets commentator on CNBC Asia, CNN, BBC. He also co-hosted a weekly show for three years on Bloomberg TV cross-examining CEOs of listed companies. Alpesh is the author of 10 investment and business books.

Viswas Raghavan

Viswas is MD and Head of Equity Capital Markets at JPMorgan with over 15 years of corporate finance and investment banking experience. He has a BSc in Physics (Bombay University) and holds a postgraduate degree in Electronic Engineering and Computer Science (Aston University). He is also a Chartered Accountant. During his career Viswas has been involved in several landmark transactions in Europe and overseen several of the most notable offerings in the market. He and his team have been awarded best Equity Linked House/Issue in Europe for the past five years running.

Yvonne Kunihira

Yvonne is a director in PricewaterhouseCoopers Banking & Capital Markets Assurance practice. She joined PwC as an audit trainee in 1995, and has worked in East & Central Africa, South East Asia, Japan, North America and continental Europe. Her current role includes being leader of PwC's global Qualified Intermediary assurance practice and leading audit and non-audit engagements to clients in the private and investment banking sectors. She is a member of PwC's Ethnic Minority Forum Steering committee and is also a career coach and mentor.

Date: Wednesday 26th April
5:30pm Registration
6:30pm Start
Venue: JPMorgan, The Great Hall, 60 Victoria Embankment London EC4Y 0JP